Audrey is an award-winning director, specialising in lucid narrative, depth of character and vivid world-building, committed to creating games that are rigorous, alive, imaginatively ambitious and emotionally truthful.

Extensively involved in new writing across games and theatre, inspired by how a script evolves, and what makes a great project work and why, she was selected as a Finalist Best Director for the Off-West End Awards, an Old Vic 12 Director, and as a recipient of a Michael Grandage Company Futures Bursary. She was also nominated for the prestigious Arts Foundation Award.

Recent game credits include: lead UK performance and voice director on Mouse: P.I. For Hire (Fumi Games), and Absolum (Dotemu), Crimson Desert (Pearl Abyss), Banishers: Ghosts of New Eden (Don't Nod), Age of Empires II: Definitive Edition - The Viking Sagas (World's Edge), Phasmophobia (Kinetic Games) and Tom Clancy's The Division 2 (Ubisoft).

Audrey was also Associate Director with the original company of the highly acclaimed Stranger Things: The First Shadow in the West End, and has directed productions at the National Theatre, Royal Court, Young Vic, Almeida, Hampstead, Kiln and the English Theatre Frankfurt.
